

What's the ruling on hanging a Qur'ān in the car?

Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān has said this has Tafseel - If someone put up the Qur'ān with the intention of honouring/blessing the words of Allāh, this is not a known act and it takes the ruling of Amulets and the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) warned against Amulets completely. However if someone put up the Qur'ān with the intention of protecting himself from accidents or troubles, then this is even worse than the previous case. And this is clear, whoever holds onto something besides Allāh has committed Shirk, and Amulets are completely prohibited, even if it's the Qur'ān because the Qur'ān is used for Ruqya, not for being an amulet.
